

Terms and conditions for the JCSS Continuing Education & Advanced School

1. If you are unable to attend a course, a substitute participant may attend in your place at no extra charge. Please provide written notification prior to or no later than 5 days prior to the start of the course.
2. Registered participants who fail to attend the training course will still be responsible for full payment.
3. While all efforts are made to ensure training, courses go ahead as scheduled, JCSS Continuing Education & Advances School reserves the right to cancel or reschedule training courses.
4. To be eligible to receive the student discount, you must be a full-time student. Proof of enrolment, photocopied full-time student card are accepted forms of identification and must be provided upon request.
5. JCSS Continuing Education & Advanced School is not responsible for non-refundable travel arrangement losses resulting from training course rescheduling or cancellation or in case participants fail to attend for any reason.
6. JCSS Continuing Education & Advanced School is not responsible for any health or accident insurance during the course.